NEW! INTRO TO MONOPRINTING

$159

Level: Beginner

Prerequisite: None

Instructor: Angela Amato

Like drawing or painting, monoprinting is a method of printmaking in which each image is a unique expression of one's personal creative voice. This 6 week class serves as an introduction to this accessible and distinctive process, which yields works with beautiful qualities of light, color and surface. Materials are provided.

INDEPENDENT EXPLORATIONS IN PRINTMAKING

$319

Level: Intermediate

Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Printmaking or instructor permission

Instructor: Elizabeth Cameron

Continue your exploration of printmaking materials and processes, from relief and intaglio to monotype, silkscreen or lithography. In this course, you'll work independently in the studio with hands-on guidance from an instructor as you gain further experience with the various ways printmakers create multiple works of art. Students in the Printmaking Certificate Program will develop a curriculum for the semester with the instructor, which will include specific goals for class and homework assignments. Equipment and some materials provided. Some materials provided; a materials list will be available upon registration.

Manchester Campus / PRT001MA
