We believe art is relevant and essential to our culture; therefore, we promote education, presentation, and civic engagement through our galleries. The New Hampshire Institute of Art (NHIA) galleries serve as both an educational tool for undergraduate, graduate and community education programs and in support of arts as part of our community.

ROGER WILLIAMS GALLERY

77 Amherst St, Manchester NH

Square footage: 2,010

The Roger Williams Gallery features a broad range of regional, national, and international artwork in diverse mediums and dimensions, that serves as an educational experience for students and the community alike.

SHARON ARTS CENTER GALLERY

30 Grove St, Peterborough NH

Square footage: 1,421 (Main Gallery); 1,127 (Community Gallery)

The Sharon Arts Center is a cultural landmark in the Monadnock Region, often hailed for its local art scene. The Sharon Arts Center Gallery is one of the best in New England, offering two spaces that exhibit a broad range of artwork that responds to and enhances the distinctive heritage of the Monadnock region, while featuring the best artwork from across the country, providing rich and diverse cultural experience.
