Manchester in a day

Start your day off with a Segway Tour of Manchester. Then drive a few short blocks to the Millyard Museum and experience the story of Manchester through a unique selection of artifacts and animated exhibits. Stop for lunch at Moe's Italian Subs or Piccola Italia Restaurant on Elm Street. After lunch shop for a unique New Hampshire souvenir at With Heart & Hand Unique Gifts. For dinner, sample one of the many restaurants such as XO on Elm, Z food and drink or the Hanover Street Chophouse. Finish your day with a show at the Verizon Wireless Arena.

For the art lover

Begin your day at the Currier Museum of Art and view internationally known artists such as Picasso, Monet and O'Keeffe. Take the Currier tour bus over to the Zimmerman House designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. Enjoy lunch at Republic Café or Ignite Bar & Grille. Spend the afternoon strolling through Art 3 Gallery and Hatfield Gallery. Enjoy dinner at Hooked Seafood Restaurant or The Derryfield. Spend the evening enjoying Opera NH or a show at the Dana Center at Saint Anselm College.

For the history buff

Begin your day with coffee or juice at MidTown Café on Elm Street, then stroll over to Veterans Park and stop by the Manchester Welcome Center on the corner of Merrimack and Elm Street. Then take a walk down to the historic Millyard and visit the Millyard Museum along the way. Have lunch at Manchester's historic 24-hour Red Arrow Diner on Lowell Street. In the afternoon, walk the Valley Street Cemetery, where some of the city's first politicians, engineers, musicians, mayors, two New Hampshire governors and many veterans of the Civil and Revolutionary wars are buried. You may also walk toward the north end of Elm Street and admire grand homes once owned by wealthy mill owners. If time allows, explore the west side and visit the birthplace of America's Credit Union Movement at the America's Credit Union Museum. For dinner, enjoy the food and atmosphere of Cotton, 900 Degrees or Fratello's Italian Grille, all located in historic mill buildings. Take in a show after dinner at the historic Palace Theatre, Manchester's premier performing arts institution.

A day with the kids

Begin your day at the SEE Science Center, where visitors of all ages have fun with the nearly 100 interactive exhibits and the largest permanent LEGO installation at mini-figure scale in the world. For lunch, there are plenty of kid-friendly options including Nadeau's Subs or the Puritan Backroom. Plus, don't forget Queen City Cupcakes or Ben & Jerry's for dessert! In the afternoon visit the Amoskeag Fishways Learning Center for interactive exhibits about the Merrimack River (and if you are here in May or June, view migrating shad, herring and sea lamprey in their underwater viewing windows) or catch some fresh air with a walk along the river to watch the kayakers traverse the rapids. In the evening have a casual dinner at Portland Pie Company and take in a Manchester Monarchs hockey game or watch the double-A New Hampshire Fisher Cats baseball team and their crazy mascot Fungo play their hearts out.
